

A PROCLAMATION HONORING
The Campolindo High School
2014 State Championship Football Team

WHEREAS, the 2014 Campolindo Varsity Football Team attends school in Moraga, California; and

WHEREAS, in 2014 Campolindo High School fielded a true “team” in every sense of the word, with 62 highly skilled and united football players and ten outstanding coaches; and

WHEREAS, the Campolindo Football Team completed regular season play with a 10-0 record, and won its fourth consecutive undefeated Diablo Foothill Athletic League (DFAL) title; and

WHEREAS, the Campolindo Football Team won a hard-fought 27-21 victory over Marin Catholic to claim the 2014 North Coast Section (NCS) Division III Championship; and

WHEREAS, the Campolindo Football Team was then selected to play in the Northern California Regional Championship game, where it trounced a previously undefeated Sutter Union High School (Yuba City) team, winning by a score of 35-14; and

WHEREAS, the Campolindo Football Team traveled to the StubHub Center in Carson, CA where on December 20, surpassing the gallant efforts of the 2011 team, it won Campolindo’s first ever California State Division III Championship, beating previously undefeated El Capitan (San Diego) by a score of 35-28; and

WHEREAS, inspired by, and perhaps with heavenly intervention from, former Campolindo Athletic Director Bob Wilson – who tragically passed away the previous week after a long battle with cancer – the Cougars roared back from a 28-7 second half deficit. In what the Contra Costa Times aptly called a “comeback for the ages,” Campolindo scored 28 unanswered points in the final 13 minutes to tie El Capitan, and then won the game on a touchdown with less than a minute to play, when defensive back Tiger Garcia forced an El Capitan fumble that was picked up and returned 85 yards by linebacker Adam “Funk Factor” Remotto; and

WHEREAS, the Campolindo Football Team had several players selected to the Alameda Newspaper Group All-East Bay Team and the SF Chronicle All-Metro Football Team, including Nick Fadelli, Max Flower, Tiger Garcia, Tyler Petite, Adam Remotto, Jack Stephens, and Sterling Strother; and

WHEREAS, Head Coach Kevin Macy was honored as NCS Coach of the Year by the Alameda Newspaper Group, Metro Coach of the Year by the SF Chronicle, State Coach of the Year by Cal-Hi Sports, and State Coach of the Year by MaxPreps.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Roger Wykle, Mayor of the Town of Moraga, along with my fellow Councilmembers, do hereby proclaim January 25, 2015 as “2014 Campolindo Varsity Football Team Day” in honor of the 2014 State Champion Campolindo Varsity Football Team’s outstanding accomplishments.
